Madrid, July 4.

THE King of Spain, ſince his Removal to the Eſcurial, has felt ſome Returns of his Ague, but is ſo well recovered that he went abroad two Days ago to take the Air. The Differences between this Court and that of Rome are come to ſuch a Height that the Pope's Nuuncio has been ordered to depart from hence, and all the Grandees, the Miniſters of State, and others in his Majeſty's Service, are forbid to have any Communication with him. He has deſired however, that he may be allowed to wait in ſome Place at three or four Leagues diſtance from this Town for the Return of an Expreſs he ſent to Rome upon this Occaſion, which has been granted. The Number of Officers employed by the Council of the Hazienda or Treaſury being thought too great, ſeveral of them have been diſcharged, who are however to be allowed two thirds of their Salaries by way of Penſion. The Inhabitants of Biſcay refuſing to pay certain Duties lately impoſed on their Trade, ſome Troops are ſent that Way to oblige them to a Compliance. Our laſt Advices from Barcelona ſay, a Veſſel was come into that Port, the Maſter whereof reported, that the Fleet which ſailed from thence the 17th, was the 20th in Sight of the Iſland of Sardinia.

Paris, July 16. The Parliament of Paris having deſired an Audience of the King, to make a further Repreſentation upon the Subject of the late Edict for regulating the Coyn, the ſame is appointed to be on the 18th Inſtant. There does not appear any Diſpoſition in the other Parliaments of this Kingdom to concur with this Parliament in their Oppoſition to the Execution of the ſaid Edict. The Cardinals, Biſhops, and other Prelates who are in Town, have frequent Meetings, to conſult upon the Meaſures to be fallen upon, in caſe the Pope perſiſts in the Reſolution our Letters from Rome ſay he has taken, to proceed to Eccleſiaſtical Cenſures againſt thoſe who refuſe to ſubmit to his Conſtitution. The Marquis de Levi is made Lieutenant General of Franche Comté in the Room of the Marquis de Grammont lately deceaſed. The Prince de Carignan having withdrawn himſelf privately from the Court of Turin, upon ſome Diſcontent, came hither this Week. Monſieur de Morville being appointed Ambaſſador from this Court to the States-General, is on his Departure for the Hague; whence Monſieur Hop is ſhortly expected with the like Character from that Republick. We have no certain Advices of the Spaniſh Fleet, ſince its Departure from Barcelona; but there is a Report of its having met with bad Weather at Sea, and been driven towards the Coaſt of Barbary. Letters from Cadiz of the 30th paſt, ſay, that Orders had been come thither ſome Days, for the Departure of the Galeoons for New Spain, which were to be convoy'd by three Men of War and two Fregates, but that they were detained in that Port by contrary Winds.

Hague, July 15. The Earl Cadogan having in his Conferences with the Deputies of the States General, ſettled the Accompts of the Sums negociated in the Netherlands during the laſt War, nothing remains now to be adjuſted but ſome Debts owing to this State, for Stores that have been furniſh'd for the Service of the Spaniſh Netherlands, during the Reign of his late Catholick Majeſty Charles the IId, for the ſettling whereof, the Sieurs Copieſters and Nanny are come hither from Bruſſels, and the Marquis de Prié is ſhortly expected from thence, to put the laſt hand to that Negociation, after which the Barrier Treaty will be fully put in Execution.

Hague, July 19. The States of Holland and Weſt-Friſeland met this Morning for the Diſpatch of ſeveral Domeſtick Affairs. Our homeward bound Eaſt India Fleet conſiſting of 22 Sail, is ſafely arrived. Baron Heems, the Emperour's Envoy, has received by an Expreſs from Vienna, an Account of the Concluſion of the Peace between the Imperialiſts and Venetians, and the Ottoman Porte. We have yet no Advices that can be depended on concerning the Spaniſh Fleet, which ſailed about a Month ago from Barcelona. Some Letters from thoſe Parts ſay, that it put into Cagliari in Sardinia, and was ſtill there the 25th of the laſt Month.

Whitehall, July 8. An Expreſs arrived this Day, with Letters from Vienna of the 9th Inſtant, N. S. which brought the welcome News of the happy Concluſion of the Negociation at Paſſarowitz, ſet on foot by the Mediation of His Majeſty and the States General for reſtoring Peace between the Emperour and the Republick of Venice, and the Grand Seignior; every Article of the Treaty being ſettled and ſigned by the reſpective Plenipotentiaries, and Directions being given for the Inſtruments to be forthwith drawn out in form and perfected. Upon which Orders had been iſſued to detach immediately ſix Regiments of Foot and four of Horſe, making in all about 16000 Men, to reinforce the Emperour's Troops in Italy.

Whitehall, July 10. An Expreſs arrived here this Morning from the Earl Stanhope, and the Earl of Stairs, with an Account that a Convention between His Majeſty and the Moſt Chriſtian King, for ſettling the Terms of Treaties of Peace between the Emperour and the King of Spain, and between his Imperial Majeſty and the King of Sicily, having on the 6th Inſtant, O. S. been read in the Council of the Regency, and unanimouſly approved, was the next Morning ſigned by their Excellencies on the Part of Great Britain, and by the Marſhal d' Huxelles, Preſident of the Council for Foreign Affairs, and the Count de Chiverny, another Member of the ſaid Council, thereto empower'd, on the Part of France.

Kenſington, July 11. Monſieur de Dalwig, Envoy from the Landgrave of Heſſe-Caſſel, had on the 8th Inſtant his firſt private Audience of His Majeſty, to which he was introduced by the Rt. Hon. James Craggs, Eſq; one of His Majeſty's Principal
